

All About Pets: Best Friends

Children love to own pets. Given the proper care, a pet is certain to become a child's friend, which is the main objective of this classic program: to help children in an entertaining and educational way learn about pets, see how they grow, understand their behavior, and see how to best care for their animal companion. Animated by the award-winning animator, Sheila Graber, and filled with upbeat music, each segment of this classic program focuses on a different animal, which include: Cat, Turtle, Guinea Pig, Bird, Fish, Rabbit, Mouse, Frog, Horse, and Dog. Collectively, children gain a greater knowledge about these animals, which is certain to help them better understand the importance of being a responsible pet owner.
